Lucia's Private School wishes to extend congratulations to you for having attained a score of within the 99th percentile in the recent SEA examination and being listed by the Ministry of Education in the listing of top SEA performers of 2019.

Your achievement is the result of your hard work, dedication and commitment to excellence. You have really made us at Lucia's Private School very proud.

We intend to recognise your achievement in the near future and we hope that you would make the time to return and grace us with your presence to be a part of the celebration.

Kindly extend congratulations to your parents on behalf of Lucia's Private School for the work they have done in supporting your efforts. We trust that they would continue to support you during your journey in secondary school and beyond.

We wish to take this opportunity to extend all the best wishes to you in your future endeavours.

Yours sincerely

Pauline Newton
